In the Pursuit of Excellence

From the Principal

ATHLETICS CARNIVAL

Last Friday we held the 2016 Athletics Carnival. The day ran very smoothly and all students participated with enthusiasm and competed fairly, displaying respect and tolerance. Thanks very much to Mr Kensett-Smith, Mr West and Mr Shepherd for putting up the shades. Thanks also to our judges Mrs Rowe, Mrs Browne, Mrs Chivell and Mr Shepherd, our marshall India Edwards and our recorder Mrs West and to the staff members who performed a variety of roles. Huge thanks to Mr Kensett-Smith who did a fantastic job as starter. An event of this size is not possible without quality assistance. Narrogin Primary School is hosting the Interschool Carnival next week, I will need assistance on Tuesday and Thursday. Please contact me through the office if you can help. Good luck to all those who will be representing us at the Interschool Carnival next week. Mr Moon

CHATTERBOX CHAT

It's nice to see all the happy, chatty faces at Brekky Bites these mornings. Congratulations everyone for the sportsmanship you demonstrated at the Faction Carnival. Best wishes to our interschool team who are competing next week. A reminder of the Combined Churches Fashion Show this Friday night at the Salvation Army Hall. Entry is only $5 and supper is supplied. Tickets available from The Meeting Place (near Chicken Treat). We are still looking to replenish our stocks of secondhand uniforms. To those who have left donations, they are greatly appreciated. Enjoy the coming week and I will be available after Assembly if you would like to catch up for a chat.
